Hello!

Welcome to CUESA (Center for Urban Education about Sustainable Agriculture) and thank you for your interest in becoming a volunteer. Since 1994, CUESA has been dedicated to promoting a sustainable food system through the operation of farmers markets and educational programs. We are keenly aware that it would be impossible to accomplish our non-profit mission without your help. The commitment and hard work of our volunteers is vital to our success, and we hope you will consider joining the team.

As a volunteer, you will have the opportunity to work in many aspects of the organization. You will receive a comprehensive orientation followed by additional training to prepare you for your chosen volunteer positions. Your time is extremely valuable to us, and we strive to make the volunteer experiences at CUESA fun, inspiring, engaging and educational. Several times a year we gather our volunteers together to celebrate with field trips, DIY workshops and lots of good food! We sincerely hope you will join us in making CUESA great!

Warm Regards,

Marcy Coburn
Executive Director

INTRODUCTION

Volunteers are significant members of our staff team. We work together to provide the best service and experience possible to our visitors, and want your participation to be beneficial and rewarding. Your loyalty and dedication to furthering the mission, reputation and integrity of are of the utmost importance.

We also recognize that your reasons for volunteering with CUESA may extend beyond your interest in our mission. For some, volunteering may provide an opportunity to directly learn more about sustainable agriculture and food systems, or other subjects of interest. For others, volunteering may help you establish food or agriculture industry connections that might help you professionally. For many, volunteering provides the chance meet new people who enjoy the same things you do, like fresh, tasty food. All of these are legitimate possibilities, and it is our sincerest wish that the experience be mutually beneficial.

This Volunteer Handbook is provided to inform volunteers and potential volunteers of the policies and operating procedures of CUESA, and of the many service opportunities that are available. It is not a contract for employment or a guarantee of a continuing relationship. CUESA reserves the right to change policies and procedures or revise the contents of the Volunteer Handbook at its sole discretion, without prior notification to volunteers.

GENERAL POLICIES

ABSENCES

Your supervisor and co-workers value your contributions and they depend on you to be present at the scheduled time. If you know you will be absent, you should notify your supervisor or the CUESA office as soon as possible so a replacement can be found.

ACCIDENTS OR INJURIES; EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

If you or a visitor is injured, you should immediately contact any CUESA staff or Ferry Building Staff immediately. At volunteer orientation you will be given a CUESA Emergency Procedures pamphlet which addresses catastrophic or natural disaster emergencies.

BACKGROUND CHECK

Although they are generally not required, at times certain volunteer positions may require that applicants complete a background check prior to placement. The results of these checks will remain confidential.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON DISCLOSURE

Prior to your volunteer service, you will be required to read and sign the “Confidentiality and Non Disclosure Agreement” in which you agree to hold confidential or proprietary information in trust and agree that Confidential Information be used only for purposes be expressly permitted by CUESA.

DRESS CODE

It is important that volunteers be dressed in a presentable and appropriate fashion, as well as safely and comfortably. Volunteers working in the markets should wear sturdy footwear and are encouraged to wear a hat and sunglasses, or use sunscreen for protection. Volunteers for special programs or fundraising activities should dress in a manner appropriate to the event.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is the policy of CUESA to treat all volunteers and staff equally on the basis of job-related qualifications regardless of gender, national origin, age, or any other classification proscribed under local, state, or federal law.
EQUIPMENT

CUESA generally provides all the necessary tools, safety equipment and supplies to volunteers and staff when they are needed, so that they may accomplish assigned tasks. However, you may bring and use your own tools or safety equipment if preferred. Resources such as reference and reading materials are available from the CUESA office and may be borrowed for short lengths of time.

EVALUATION

Your job performance will be evaluated regularly. Depending on the extent and complexity of your job, the evaluations may be formal or informal, written or oral. It is important that you communicate clearly and frequently with your supervisor. Discuss any successes, difficulties, suggestions, or questions you have.

HOLD HARMLESS AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

CUESA does its best to ensure the safest work environment possible. Prior to your volunteer service, you will be required to read and sign the “Waiver and Release of Liability and Hold Harmless Agreement” in which you agree to indemnify and hold harmless CUESA from any loss, liability, damage or costs that may be incurred due to your volunteer activity.

IDENTIFICATION

You should always conspicuously wear your name tag when interacting with the public. It is important for visitors to be able to identify individuals who are able to help them with directions, concerns and information. Please report lost name tags immediately to the Volunteer Coordinator for replacement.

MAINTENANCE OF PERSONAL DATA

You are responsible for updating personal data, such as change of address, contact telephone number, etc., with the Volunteer Coordinator.

NO SOLICITATION/NO DISTRIBUTION

The conduction on non-CUESA business on site, such as canvassing, collection of funds, pledges, circulation of petitions, solicitation of memberships or any other similar types of activity, is strictly prohibited.
OPEN DOOR POLICY

Should you have or foresee a problem that may interfere with your commitment or ability to adequately perform your responsibilities, please immediately discuss the matter with your supervisor or another member of the staff. The Volunteer Coordinator is always available to discuss changes, problems, or concerns.

PARKING

Parking is not provided for any volunteer or paid staff or board member, although parking validation for pre-approved lots is available. Those lots & rates can be found on the CUESA website.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

The manner in which we as volunteers and paid staff conduct ourselves should create a favorable and lasting impression of CUESA and its operations and activities. The continued success of the organization depends on the quality, integrity, expertise, and professionalism of all our staff.

Market customers and program participants must receive prompt and courteous attention and a helpful and meaningful response. CUESA staff should be contacted to assist in any situation that is beyond volunteers’ control. Visitors to our facilities must always be treated with deference, tact, and courtesy. Similarly, respect and thoughtfulness towards your fellow workers will always be expected.

REPORTING FOR DUTY, KEEPING WORK HOURS

You should report to your assigned supervisor upon arrival. Supervisors will provide instructions for storing coats, bags, and other personal items; we recommend locking valuable items in the trunk of your vehicle. You must sign-out upon completion of your shift, noting the total number of hours worked. Keeping an accurate tally of volunteer work hours is very important.

RESIGNING FROM THE VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

To end a volunteer commitment, please notify your supervisor or the Volunteer Coordinator of that decision and the effective date.

SAFETY AND SECURITY PROCEDURES

You are expected to observe and follow all the safety and security policies of CUESA. You are also encouraged to report unsafe conditions to your supervisor, the Volunteer Coordinator or Executive Director. If you observe any unsafe or inappropriate behavior by other volunteers, staff, or visitors & participants, contact any of the paid staff available.
SEXUAL HARASSMENT

All volunteers, employees, supervisors, and members of management, both male and female, are strictly prohibited from sexually harassing or making improper advances towards other volunteers, guests, employees, supervisors, or members of management. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome or unsolicited verbal, physical, or sexual conduct that is made a term of condition of service or employment, is used as the basis of employment or advancement decision, or has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with work or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

SOCIAL MEDIA AND BLOGGING

Sometimes volunteers like to share their experiences with CUESA and the Ferry Plaza Farmers Market in conversations with family and friends, or to wider online community. If you’re on social media, please connect, interact, and tag us @cuesa in your posts, so we can respond or share.

Facebook: www.facebook.com/cuesa
Instagram: www.instagram.com/cuesa
Twitter: www.twitter.com/cuesa

We’re always excited to interact with our volunteers online and appreciate you spreading the word about CUESA’s mission and programs to your own networks. While we enjoy seeing our volunteers post about their experiences, we ask that you please respect the following guidelines:

- Please write from your own point of view, not CUESA’s. Be clear about your position in the organization. As a volunteer with CUESA, you represent us while you are performing your volunteer service, but you are not an official spokesperson. However, simply by your association you are perceived as an ambassador at anytime you discuss the organization.
- If you’re not sure about details, please talk to a staff member before posting. We’re always happy to answer any questions or fact check a social media or blog post.
- If you’ve had a negative experience, please talk with us directly so we can discuss and try to remedy the situation. Please refrain from personal attacks or being disrespectful toward others.
- Be aware of your audience and the people your comments could impact. Many people keep up with CUESA news including staff, other volunteers, board members, farmers, market shoppers, and Ferry Building management and businesses.

As a courtesy, we appreciate knowing about your posts about the market. We always like to hear our volunteers’ perspectives and may even want to share them with the broader CUESA community. You can email links to cindy@cuesa.org.

TERMINATION OF VOLUNTEERS

CUESA reserves the right to terminate any volunteer for violations of policies or procedures, or failure to perform assigned duties.
VEHICLES AND EQUIPMENT

You are generally not authorized to drive any vehicles on behalf of CUESA. You may use CUESA equipment only in connection with your duties and after receiving appropriate training.

WEATHER

CUESA staff make a strong effort to continue all operations and events under mildly inclement weather. In the event of major weather events or natural disasters, CUESA staff will give you notice if normal operations are canceled. If you do not receive notification of cancellation, you are expected to report as scheduled.
VOLUNTEER JOB DESCRIPTIONS

The information booth is the market hub of information, and we couldn’t run it without volunteers!
